"A City's Center"

Saturday, July 25 @ 1pm

Adult Summer Reading Finale

Join Nan Laurence, a senior planner for the City of Eugene, for a Conversation Project sponsored by Oregon Humanities.

Historically, a city's downtown core has been the community's cultural and economic center. Today, however, many downtowns represent social and economic distress. Cities of all sizes are trying to revitalize their downtowns, but the qualities essential to this revitalization remain elusive. Join in a conversation about what downtown means, and share your own thoughts and ideas about this vital topic.
